

The support we offer through our partnership with Leonard Cheshire

Leonard Cheshire, (LC), provides independent and confidential information, advice and guidance and mentoring support to our clients who are affected by disability.

The services we offer you

Through LC we offer carers and people living with a disability, physical and sensory impairment as well as mental health or long term work limiting conditions, a range of support which could include:

- In-depth personalised support and mentoring
- Telephone and email support, advice and guidance on a wide range of disability related subjects
- Referral to further specialist advice and local support organisations and other LC services

Client feedback

“Information and support provided has been excellent and increased my confidence in managing my affairs and improved by emotional wellbeing”

What you can expect

A professional advice and mentoring support that includes information and guidance from advisors with expertise in benefits, debt, independent living, grant and statutory funding, employment, transport, housing, respite, and specific disability information.
