

The support we offer through our partnership with The National Autistic Society

The National Autistic Society, (NAS), the UK's leading charity for people affected by autism, have been providing information and advice about autism to our clients since 2007.

The services we offer you

Through our partnership with NAS we can provide the following information, advice and support to children, adults and families.

- Pre-diagnosis service offering telephone advice and guidance about diagnosis
- Support with the transition from school to adult life or further education including advice about rights and entitlements and information about supporting services
- Specialist behavioural support for parents and carers dealing with such things as; aggression, social skills, obsession, anxiety and sensory issues
- Access to online modules, 'Ask autism', designed and co-produced by autistic adults to provide a unique 'insider' perspective on living with autism
- 10 year membership of the NAS; access to local networks, updates, and discounted publications

Client feedback

"BWC and NAS have made such a positive difference to me and my children, I feel more so much more informed about autism"

What you can expect

Contact from an NAS co-ordinator who will work with you to explore the services that we offer so that together you can decide on the best approach for your situation.

For more information

Call your client advisor on our free helpline: 0800 0234 834

Confidentiality statement

BWC and NAS treat all personal data and information provided by you as confidential. We will not disclose any details to third parties without your express permission, unless required to do so for the safety and welfare of children and vulnerable adults, for audit requirements or if required by law.

We are independent of banks and our support is provided in confidence.