

The support we offer through our partnership with Relate

Relate, the UK's largest provider of relationship counselling, have been working with BWC to provide a relationship counselling service to our clients since 2013.

The services we offer you

Through our partnership with Relate we provide relationship support for our clients, including new relationships, long-term relationships, or support if you're not in a relationship at all. Whether you're facing a major relationship crisis, or smaller issues that are making you unhappy, services could include:

- Individual, couple or family counselling
- face-to-face, telephone, email, LiveChat or webcam counselling
- support for family life, separation and divorce, children and young people, mediation and sex therapy

Client feedback

"When a relationship goes wrong, you can't always see the wood for the trees. Relate gave me an outside perspective and time to address our problems before making rash decisions."

What you can expect

Contact from Relate to run through an initial assessment to determine which counselling service is most suitable. A series of appointments that last around 45 minutes, from trained and accredited therapists who have experience of working with people from a wide range of backgrounds.
